

5 March 2018

Dear GDHP Participants,

Following the success of the inaugural summit meeting of the Global Digital Health Partnership (GDHP) in Canberra, Australia, we are delighted to invite you to the subsequent GDHP meeting to be held in Washington DC on the 25th of April 2018.

This meeting will be an opportunity for us to continue to share unique insights from countries, particularly those who may have been unable to attend the meeting in Canberra, as well as review the work plans that were discussed at the inaugural summit.

In addition to the GDHP session, there will be various meetings held throughout the week commencing on Monday the 23rd of April. These are outlined in the table below:

23 rd April	9am - noon	Private meetings with US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) senior leadership
	1pm – 5pm	Tours of US Capitol and continued meetings with HHS senior leadership
24 th April	9am - noon	GDHP Work stream meetings
	1pm – 3pm	Enterprise Data Strategies in the US and other countries
	3pm – 5pm	FHIR updates
25 th April	9am – 2pm	Global Digital Health Partnership meeting

We would also like to invite you to the 2018 Health Datapalooza conference - see (<http://www.academyhealth.org/events/site/2018-health-datapalooza>) - which takes place on the 26th and 27th of April. Health Datapalooza brings together a diverse community of big thinkers and problem solvers who share a mission to liberate and use data to improve health and care. During this conference (26th of April) there will be a breakout session providing a progress update on the GDHP.

Please respond to the GDHP Secretariat (GDHP@digitalhealth.gov.au) to confirm your attendance at the sessions on 23rd – 25th April and the Health Datapalooza on 26th – 27th April. For general enquiries about Health Datapalooza and further opportunities for your involvement please contact James Daniel (james.daniel@hhs.gov).

We are grateful for your consideration of this invitation.

Yours sincerely,

Bruce Greenstein
